

KEEP OPEN
THAT DOOR TO THE WORLD

NAN BOSLER
PRESIDENT, ASCCA

Australian Seniors
Computer Clubs Association ASCCA

Technology can make all the difference!

- ❖ Improve self esteem and well being
- ❖ Communicate with family and friends
- ❖ Embrace life long learning

COMMUNICATION TO-DAY IS MIND BOGGLING!

ASCCA Working For Seniors

- ❖ Technology can help a primary carer enhance their own lifestyle
- ❖ ASCCA is preparing a Carer's computer and resource manual.

ASCCA Working For Seniors

- ❖ ASCCA includes 'those with a disability' in its mandate
- ❖ Adaptive technology can help seniors to continue enjoying and benefiting from the use of their computer.

ASCCA Working For Seniors

- ❖ ASCCA has developed a Cyber Club

ASCCA is the National Peak Body for Seniors and Technology

ASCCA is a Public Benevolent Institution

Services are provided by volunteers to assist older and disabled Australians to access computer technology.

It is run by seniors for seniors.

ASCCA seeks to serve the Seniors of Australia by providing information, training, forums, seminars and workshops relevant to Information Communications Technology and other issues of importance to older or disabled people.

❖ Older people can be empowered if they are given the opportunity to learn how to use technology

Let me introduce Barbara ...

Ladies and Gentlemen,

At the click of a mouse we can keep open a door to the world!

Thank you.
